

NEW TO SELF CONTAINED? MEET WITH THE TEAM

When you are new to a classroom, a team, students, school, program, or special education self contained in general it is always best to gather information about your new students and classroom.

HERE ARE SOME PEOPLE YOU WANT TO MEET WITH OR REACH OUT TO:

Special Education chair

Paraprofessionals

Speech Language

Pathologist

Occupational therapist

Physical Therapist

Vision Specialist

Orientation and Mobility Specialist

Special Teachers

General education teachers

Anyone else who works with your students

HERE ARE SOME QUESTIONS TO ASK THE TEAM:

What was the classroom schedule?

How does the paraprofessional schedules work?

How do you manage challenging behaviors?

What are the students highest reinforcers?

Who works well together?

What was the most challenging part of the previous year?

What is the biggest need in the classroom?

What was the best part of the previous year?

What is one thing you would like to see changed?

What is one thing you would like to remain the same?

How can I best support you?
